All the information given on this form is correct.

I have read, and agree to be bound by, the school's Terms and Conditions.

I understand that while the Student is studying with the School, the School has a duty of care to the Student, as laid out in the School's Safeguarding and Welfare Policy. The School makes decisions regarding the safeguarding and safety of its students based on UK law, local knowledge and experience. The School will not agree to any requests that go against these policies, laws or principles.

In an emergency, or in any case relating to the safeguarding of the Student, every effort will be made to communicate with the parent, guardian and/or other emergency contact of the Student. However, in urgent cases, the School may take actions to ensure the safety of the Student without first consulting these people.

I am the parent or legal guardian of the Student.
